

How do you ask for help with a resume or job skills? Like this:

“Hi there - I will be using this cover letter to apply for accountant trainee. Do you have any feedback?”

“I am studying mental health peer work and would like to start applying for jobs, but i have no prior industry experience. I would like some tips/ advice on writing a cover letter as all my previous roles have been in manufacturing and im not sure where to start.”

“Hi, I am writing a CV to get a part time job, am wondering if it’s necessary to have a personal statement? Or should I just make it simple with CV and cover letter, thanks. “

You get 24/7 study help and job-skills help for free with your library Member number. In fact, more than 1.6 million people in Australia and around the world have access to Studiosity.

First, find Studiosity on the library website. Use your Library Member number to login for free, then just connect live and chat with someone who can help.

Powered by:

Studiosity
Anytime, anywhere